25X1X1 1. The value of the Accessions List of for the period August 1957 is considered to be great. It is believed that such lists will prove of definite use as monthly checks on available reports, and will increase in value when kept for a reference file. It is recommended, therefore, that publication of these List be continued.

2. The format is concise and clear, enabling the analyst to determine at a glance whether referenced reports might be applicable to his work.
